Imagination as a Path to Wisdom: Exploring Depth through Dreams and Images

Mary Harrell, Ph.D.

Friday April 3
from 7-9 pm

Saturday April 4
from 9 am – 1:15 pm

Friday Night Lecture: Attendees will explore methods for working with figures brought by the unconscious for our well-being. These inner figures include dream figures, beings in visitations, figures from myth, fairy tales, modern fiction or subtle-bodied personalities—beings neither fully material, nor fully spirit. To work with these imaginal figures is to become more fully who we are meant to be. One useful path toward understanding is to develop a working relationship with particular images. These figures present themselves for our healing, or to chide us to change an attitude or course of action.

Saturday Workshop: During this workshop we'll investigate how imaginal figures might be identified in our own lives. Through small group exercises, attendees will encounter their own inner images. We'll discover how various requests from such figures might be honored and what part psyche might play in the work. For those of us who don't dream, or don't seem to have experiences of imaginal figures, the exercises, and group sharing will open a portal to a different way of knowing.

Mary Harrell, a Jungian-oriented psychotherapist, and licensed psychologist, received her Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from Pacifica Graduate Institute, Santa Barbara, CA. She is Associate Professor Emeritus at State University of New York (SUNY) at Oswego. Her first book titled, Imaginal Figures in Everyday Life: Stories from the World between Matter and Mind was published in 2015 (Chiron Publications). Dr. Harrell's latest book, The Mythmaker (2018, Chiron Publications) was awarded a 2018 Nautilus Silver Medal.
